

Dave Foster

Description:

i have had the pleasure of working with fabulous singers over the years , most recently michael ball and jocelyn brown. I can call upon 20 years of experience in the music industry and can offer advice, create arrangements to suit and print and arrange music. i have a degree in jazz and have gained valuable knowledge of musical theatre having worked at doreen bird and performers college for a few years.

i know the industry inside out and can offer song choice to suit any auditions. i work in two function bands so i really know all the popular covers. Most importantly i use my ears. i'm available for anywhere in the country.please get in touch regards dave foster
